1	251.09(1)(am) Infant & Toddler - Intake Information Description: Center staff did not use the information obtained from a child's parents when the staff swaddled a 10-month old child with a blanket. Staff continued to swaddle the child after the parent directed them not to do so after the first occasion.	Upon receiving the parent's initial concern, the staff member involved was immediately disciplined and staff meeting was conducted to reinforce the requirement that all parent instructions regarding a child's care must be followed. After it was determined that the concern reoccurred, the employee was terminated. The center has reviewed expectations with all remaining staff regarding individualized care, following parent instructions and documenting & implementing parent requests. The owner will continue to provide ongoing supervision and training to ensure compliance.	5/6/26
2	251.09(2)(bm) Infant & Toddler - Sleep Position Description: A child, under the age of one, was placed in a bouncer seat while swaddled in a blanket.	Upon learning of this violation, the employee involved was terminated. In addition, all staff reviewed Wisconsin safe sleep requirements and infant care regulations. Staff have been reminded that infants under 1 yr old must be cared for in accordance with state licensing regulations and safe sleep practices & not to be placed in a bouncer & swaddled. The owner will continue to monitor staff compliance through ongoing supervision & training	5/6/26
