Good afternoon child care family... Just have to inform you all on a couple changes that will be taking place. Mini Miracles will have a rate increase that will be effective starting August 1, 2023. New policies will be given out prior to the effective date. I will also be getting a puppy/dog.. There has never been a dog on the premises so since I will be getting one I have to inform you all that there will be a dog on the daycare premises... The dog and the daycare is fully insured.

Great morning Child Care Family... Monthly text is coming a day early. Tomorrow is the 1st so I wanted to get information to you all a day early.

New policy and rates have been given to the state at the beginning of June. There were a few changes in the policy. 1st was information about the center getting a puppy. Mini Miracles is covered with insurance for the puppy.

New rates will be going into effect. There is also a rate change for late pick up fee.. Late pick up fee rate has been changed to $15.00 per min. When children are not picked up on time, it puts me over my numbers and can cause a violation from the state. New late pick up fee WILL BE ENFORCED!

There is also a change to center being open when school is closed for inclement weather. Mini Miracles will now be CLOSED 1st shift only when school is closed
