Per sheriff report, a worker from another classroom reported observing the child crying and "not acting normal" when seeing child on the playground at approx. 3:20-3:30 PM. Parent picked the child up approx 4 PM; the child was crying and complained her arm hurt. Child's teacher stated she did not know what happened; child said fell off swing set at which point the teacher remembered that happening.	This particular banner was left go, but I had a staff meeting to let teacher know the proper way to call out an Incident Report.	3-14-2025
